Cracow

is the second largest city in Poland and until 1795 it was the capital of our country.

Vistula

Cracow is located on the bank on the Vistula River, the longest river in Poland.

The most beautiful place in Kraków is Wawel Castle. Legend says that a dragon once lived there. Now there is a fire-breathing monument there.

Cracow Market Square

Cracow Market Square is the largest medieval market square in all of Europe. It is here that numerous celebrations and important national events take place.

Mariacka Tower

One of the most famous places in Cracow is Mariacka Tower where every hour a special anthem is played with the trumpet. Legend says that when the Tatars attacked Cracow, the trumpeter started to play to warn the inhabitants he was by the enemy's arrow.

Sukiennice

"Sukiennice" is a building where we can buy many beautiful hand-made materials, souvenirs and sweets.

There is an Underground Museum underneath the Cracow Market Square, where we can go back in time and admire the old Cracow.

Museum in Cracow

In the National Museum in Cracow there is a painting by Leonardo da Vinci "Lady with an Ermine".

Dżok dog monument

Not far from Wawel Castle there is a monument to a dog named Dżok. His owner died of a heart attack in the center of Cracow, and the faithful dog waited for him a year in the same place.

Cracow specialities

The Cracow delicacy is "Kremówka Papieska", which in childhood was the favourite dessert of Pope John Paul II.

Famous people from Cracow

Many famous Polish musicians were born in Cracow , such as Zbigniew Wodecki, Kora and Ewa Demarczyk.

Cracow
